“ My dear lifetime friends.....
I am saddened to hear of your Dad's passing. Although it is a blessing when the Lord releases our loved ones from their earthly pain and suffering. It still makes it hard on those of us who are left behind. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Daddy moved to a very nice assisted living facility three miles from Tim (son) and Kathy's home in Villa Rica, Georgia in June 2010. They gave him lots of time, attention and care during that time. He had a stroke and a heart attack on Christmas Day. After a brief time in the hospital he was moved to Tranquility, a residential hospice facility that provided a quiet place for him to spend his last days. He died peacefully and naturally, just as he had requested.

Daddy enjoyed his work until he retired at age 72 and lived 19 more years. He spent the last six months of his life reading the Bible, watching a little TV and listening to audio sermons.

It was pretty amazing that he was able to live by himself in his home until he was 90. His neighbors made that possible. We're glad to know he is now free from pain and limitations. Thanks be to God.
