“ Offering sincere condolences to the family. I am so very sorry for your loss. Our Heavenly father in His word the Bible calls death an enemy (1Cor. 15:26) which He promises in the very near future to do away with (Rev. 21:4,5) At that time tragedies and accidents will be a thing of the past, no one will ever get sick (Isaiah 33:24) and there will be a reuniting, a bringing back to life instead of losing (John 5:28,29) Please allow these words to be of comfort to you and give you hope. (2Cor. 1:3,4)

“ I am so sorry about your loss. Death is a cruel, cruel enemy that can turn our life upside down and make us feel like we can't go on. But with God's help, we can, and especially can his wonderful promise of a resurrection (John 5:28 & 29) bring us a huge measure of comfort.

Until that time, I pray that you continue to endure by means of His Holy Spirit and through the love of those who care deeply for you.
