“ I had 6mts. to spend at home with mom back two years ago. We had a great time believe, playing dress up. We just laughed and carried on at our silly selves. I would not take anything for those months. She treated me like a small child, and you know what, I loved everything we shared good and bad. She told me about Grandma and Grandpa Ledbetter, and herself coming to Atlanta on a horse and buggy, it took from sun up to sundown, I could not imagine such an event. Mom loved God, her family- and all of us from the extension. She was a remarkable woman. She had to leave us, to go awhile, but she knew it was her time to go to a place, that we can only imagine, she had tears in her eyes to leave us behind, but we encouraged her and she went to be with her youngest son- Bill and the Lord- we cried and praised God at the same time. Resting in the arms of God- can hardly wait to meet them all at those golden gates. In God's love and Mom's I am very honored to be your baby girl- Patsy
